COURT OF AUDIT

V4+2 Meeting

Budapest, June 5-6, 2018

SDGs represent opportunities for SAIs

Mojca Planinšek, Second Deputy President

Why are SDGs oriented audits a must?

Audit reports CANNOT be just critical towards the past issues, but MUST also be visionary and sustainably oriented.

All 3 aspects of SDGs in audits: 1. Environmental Slovenia has the second highest biodiversity index within the EU

60%
of the country is covered by woods

97%
of used water comes from good quality underground water sources (aquifers)

The highest share in the EU
More than 37%
of Slovenia's territory is part of Natura 2000

2. Social segment - demographic trends

1.4 / 1

Only 1.4 active person
supports 1 pensioner

85%
of young people
(15-29 years old)
are still living with their parents

Youth in numbers

21.9%
of population

15.1%
of population

The Court of Audit responsibility placed its efforts and resources on limiting the use of audit
funds in future.

Environmental audits, audits covering environmental, administrative, financial, food safety and others give particular emphasis on ensuring sustainable development goals and drive for their improved
implementation at national level.

The use of public funds in the future strongly depends on our efforts for sustainable development.

Key opportunities for SAIs:
1. How to include SDGs in audits
2. How to present them
